“ So many wonderful childhood memories with Daddy Don and his beautiful family. I loved to go visit and stay with y'all in Lubbock. He had such a gentleness about him, always had that sweet smile that made you feel loved. May my sweet Daddy Don Rest In Peace and take care of those of us he left behind from up above.

Sheryl, Tammi, and Mark thank you so much for sharing your dad with our family. My deepest and sincerest condolences to you all and your families. Remember to focus on the lessons he taught you and the love he gave you. May God comfort your hearts and bring peace to your thoughts.

With much love ❤️,

Jennifer McKinney

“Wayne and Ann (Gardner) Holland have known Don and Sharon Threadgill for over 50 years, and their children since their births. We married within a few months of each other, being mutual bridal attendants. After their 29 years of marriage ended, their caring about one another and the families they shared did not go astray.

Their children, grands, and great-grands have much to be proud of in the way they stayed in touch and how dedicated they were to help with Don's care when his health was failing. He seemed to enjoy being a caregiver himself, wanting to go help with new babies and youngsters.

Sheryl and Regan met each other working with us at Holland Gardens during college years, Tammi and her family, and Mark and his wife and three boys were all part of the special celebrations of the Threadgill and Painter families. There have been many happy times to treasure and photos to document them.

As a deacon's daughter, as were Sharon and Barbara, we were always glad to welcome a new pastor's family to First Baptist Church at Edmonson, TX, especially if there were children, too. Don was the first son of Bro. Perry and Bonnie Threadgill when they came as a pastor family to our small community church in about 1958.

Our hearts are so thankful Don had a strong faith in the Lord, and that his family have great memories of being with him to gather mistletoe from a pasture, play a little pitch and catch ball, and be in the Lord's service. Rick, Don's pastor brother, will be a very welcome one to do Don's memorial service, and lead as they return his earthly body to the earth along side his parents, brother Mike, and grandparents at Floydada, TX.

Jerry Edwards was a good buddy of Don's plus a good Christian young adult when he had a fatal crop-dusting accident near Slaton. Most likely when Don's soul arrived at Heaven's Gate, Jerry and many who have pre-deceased us have already welcomed him at Jesus's feet.

“ Don and his sweet family held a special place in our hearts. He was lovingly called "Daddy Don" by our daughter still to this day.

We will hold on to our sweet memories. Rest in peace our dear friend.

Tammi, Sheryl and Mark (and your families) and Sharon too, we wish we could be there to put our arms around you. The drive is just too far for Bernie at this time. Please know you are all in our prayers and we send our love to you.
