

Doris Rebecca Blagg

August 13, 1933 - September 24, 2021

Doris Rebecca Blagg, 88 of Albuquerque, NM, formally from Lubbock, Texas passed away in the hospital on September 24, 2021 after a sudden illness. Doris was born August 13, 1933 in Delta County Texas to Dolly and Burt Garrett.

Preceded in death by her husband Jim Blagg; parents Dolly and Burt; son Steve; sister Ruth; and brother Bill.

Doris is survived by her son Jim and wife Karen of Albuquerque, and daughter Sue and husband Mike, of Mesquite, Texas. Several beloved grandchildren and great grandchildren as well as her brother Mack and wife Judy.

Doris began working at a young age at Furr's Cafeteria in Lubbock, Texas. She and her beloved sister, Ruth, and mother, Dolly, worked together close to 40 years at Furr's Cafeteria. Doris retired in her early 70's. She and Ruth spent many years enjoying their home, yard work, and just laughing together. Doris cherished her family and nothing made her more happy than a visit from all of them. Our memories of mom include her great cooking, her smile, her stories, and her strength. She was brave, strong, and was proud of her family.

We are comforted knowing Doris believed that Jesus Christ was her Lord and Savior.

Services will be held at 2:00 PM Saturday, November 6, 2021 at Sanders Funeral Home in Lubbock, Texas. A Celebration of Life Dinner will follow the Service. Doris will be laid to rest next to her husband.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks for prayers for safe travels home.

What a wonderful tribute to your precious mom & mother-in-law!!!! While we didn't have the privilege of knowing her, you can sense her gentle spirit in her smile and servant's heart in these photos. It was great to see the other members of your family, too. We love you and pray your hearts will always be comforted by these precious memories!

Jim and Karen,

Such a beautiful tribute to a special lady. I have often wondered about my aunt , and how she was.

So many years have gone by. Doris always welcomed me into her home, and she and I visited on the phone often when she lived in Lubbock. May you rest in special dear lady.
