“ Dearest Danny and family,
I am rejoicing for Aunt Dorothy. She is finally home singing, laughing, visiting, and hugging family and friends who arrived before and asked her, “What took you so long?” God gives us our hearts desires and her life is eternally, joyfully forever happy, forever smiling and overflowing with peace. Aunt Dorothy sewed her way into so many lives making happy hearts and and precious memories. I was once one of the little girls she blessed with a poodle skirt and still remember twirling and feeling like a movie star.
Thank you Aunt Dottie for all the stitches of love. My heart smiles just thinking of your hours of kindness and goodness. Praying for the hearts that miss you already that there will be peace overflowing into each life and sweet memories spilling forth that replace the tears with deep and deeper still pure love.
God bless each of you,
