“ JB was a good man, husband, father, friend and talented engineer.

Living in Lubbock in the 70's, we have happy memories, visiting, weekend cookouts, canning, and traveling to the Miller's cabin in northern New Mexico. We cherish those times and celebrate JB's home-going, pain free. God bless his family and love ones.

“ Thank you for the wonderful pictures of Dwayne in his youth and with his family. I met him when he volunteered day after day in Charleston at the State Archives Library sorting and preserving newspapers and helping people. What an interesting, authentic and kind human being! “ JB was a great friend, room mate, engineer and mentor. Donna and I will miss him. He taught me to study and to never give up. I'm sure that the things that I accomplished in life are due in a great part to him. I wish I could have had one last cup of coffee with him at Broadway Drug.

“ At Midland HS, I knew and appreciated Dwayne and his brother Larry. They were both outgoing and loyal to their friends. Dwayne's accomplishments are no surprise as he could complete almost any task he set out as a goal. Best wishes to his family.
