“ Wow, where do I begin? I've known this precious man since I was a kid. The Dunn family would come out to our farm very often to visit us. They were very good friends with my parents and had a lot in common since they both were farmers, and then also had church in common. When they came it was always full of fun and laughter. When my daddy had his stroke, he and Vicki would come to see him, they will never know what a boost that was for not only him, but my mother and I. Even though our circumstances were not great, there was reminiscing and laughter. Although Earl was not a loud man, when he spoke, ppl listened and he could be quite comical as well. He was always such a kind, gentle, caring man, that loved his family, friends, church, and God. He was a great Christian man and I know heaven is rejoicing that another child has come home. To the kids; I know there will be a huge void in your lives. However you, and I as well, had such great role models as dads. Remember all the cherished moments you shared. Cry, laugh, talk about it and repeat often. You and I can join him again someday in that heavenly home, if we live our lives for Jesus! Our goal is to be reunited someday with our lived ones. I love each of you and just know, our family loves you and is praying for you! Hugs to you all. Love, Pam

“ So many memories and how do you share them all. Earl was in my from birth, he watch me grow up all the while he set an example in my life of what it was to live God. I loved watching him shout for the Lord and play his mandolin. He was a second dad to me. I spent many Sunday's at their home and loved every minute. He will forever be in my heart and my thoughts.

Earl Dunn...one of the purest hearted men I ever knew. He was genuine! I never heard a disparaging word come out of his mouth. The Bible says, "If the fruit is good, the tree is good." Earl Dunn was a "good" man.
