

Earlyne King Thomas

June 30, 1928 - March 26, 2024

Earlyne King Thomas was born June 30, 1928 in Southland, Garza County Texas and left this earth on March 26, 2024. Earlyne was preceded in death by her parents Leslie and Olga King, her brother Robert Douglas King, her husband Norman Douglas Thomas, and her daughter Ramona Lee Perrin. Survivors include sister-in-law Hazel Nelson, son Paul D. Thomas (Patricia), grandchildren Tami L. Duncan (Rob), Thomas A. Thomas, Clint P. Thomas (Shara), Jesse D. Thomas (Rebecca), Lesli M. De Paz (Enrique), Roman T. Perrin (Ashley), Luke D. Perrin, and 14 great grandchildren. To the grandchildren, she is Gran.

Earlyne was married to Norman, the boy just down the country dirt road, on December 1, 1946 in Hale Center, Hale County Texas. They later moved to Costa Mesa, California.

Growing up, Earlyne helped her father on their cotton farm in Hale Center, Texas. She has fond memories of riding a horse named Cricket to school. Later she worked as a telephone operator in Santa Fe, New Mexico, besides caring for 2 kids she worked grading cotton in Lubbock, and worked alongside her husband Norman at Industrial Fixtures in Lubbock.

She never met a stranger and loved to talk to people. She later started her own business at home called the Herb Shoppe where she enjoyed conversing with people and offering a few suggestions along the way. She and Norman were founding members of the Sunset Church of Christ where they attended and were actively involved in the church mission for many years.

In lieu of flowers, please feel free to pick a charity of your choice to bless. Some of her favorite charities were Lubbock Children's Home, Smithlawn Home, and Sunset International Bible Institute.
