

Edith Grace Yates

May 31, 2021 - May 31, 2021

Edith, "Edie" Grace Yates was born sleeping in the loving arms of Jesus on Monday, May 31st, 2021.

Edie will forever be remembered and loved and cherished by her parents, Joey and Amber Yates and big brother, Gladden Yates.

Though her time on earth was brief, she was the answer to so many prayers and the hope in so many hearts. Her arrival had been filled with joyful expectations for all who loved her and will miss her.

Her sweet life will continue to strengthen our faith and courage and she will dwell in our hearts until we hold her again in that beautiful place of peace where there are no tears, no loss or separation.

Edie is survived by Grandparents, Kandie Bailey of Lubbock, David and Karin Burch of Amarillo, Bobby and Becky Yates of Lubbock and Great Grandmother Jeanie Bailey of Lubbock and Barbara and Cecil Burch of Amarillo.

Among those left to mourn her loss are Uncle Aaron Burch and Aunt Laura Burch of Slaton and Aunt Alisha "Sheesha" Harrist and, Uncle Brandon Rawe and Aunt Neely Yates Rawe, and Uncle Brady Hinson and Aunt Lindsey Yates Hinson of Lubbock.

Cousins who will carry her in their hearts are, Addison and Cason Harrist, Dominic, John, Cecilia, Nicholas and Aubrey Burch, Finley, Wylie and Auggie Rawe and Jack and Colt Hinson.

Knowing that our Edie Grace is in the loving arms of Great Grandparents, Darrell Bailey, J.G. and Lou Garry and Joe Bob and Edith Yates has been comforting and brought peace.

Services are under the direction of Sanders Funeral Home and a graveside burial will be at Resthaven on Monday, June 7th at 10:00 AM., conducted by Pastor Johnathan Wright.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers that donations be made to <https://www.gatheringhope.net> In Memory of Edith Grace Yates, or to the charity of your choice.

The Yates, Bailey, and Burch families would like to sincerely thank so many of our loved ones that have provided so many prayers, words of encouragement and love during this time of great loss.
