“ Prayers to the entire Healy family! Elaine and I grew up together in St Louis - we lived only 3 blocks from each other. We developed a strong friendship in grade school, but saw a little less of each other in high school. We 'renewed' our friendship in 1983 at our high school reunion. We kept in touch weekly by email - we nicknamed ourselves "Lucy and Ethel". We had many a laugh and tears through our emails, especially in the last 7 years. If Elaine wasn't well, she didn't share it. She was always upbeat, active in her church and loved keeping in touch with childhood friends. I will miss her so very much. To me, she was a strong leader but had a tender heart. I'm sure God will take good care of her till we can see her again. Betty Wehrman Vasel, April 14, 2019
