“ This is very hard for me, my name is Rasheika& im one of the nurse aides that had the privilege of knowing& taking care of Mrs.Garces the last two years, me& her shared alot of life conversation together as well as others things, i dont know what it was about her that drew me to love her so much as person besides the caring heart she had, im so sorry for the loss of her& i send my condolences to the family, no one will ever know the love that we shared, im blessed that i got the chance to know such a great woman like her as i type this i have tears in my eyes, the day she left for the hospital she told me she wished i could go with her& i wished i could go to, she said to me sheika im not coming back im gonna die, i immediately started to cry& i was try to be strong for her but i couldn't hide my tears, she grab my hand as we were waiting on the ambulance& told me to always remember that she loved me the most& thats something that will stay in my heart forever cause she knew she wasn't coming back& i was praying so hard that she was wrong& that when i went back to work she would be in her room in her bed smiling at me...oh how i wish, its hard, ill never forget her she will always be in my heart& i know she loved me& she know i loved her...may u rest in peace my beautiful friend ill see u again in heaven, i love you always Mrs.Garces💜
