“ Oh my sweet Eloise..I came by Sanders too late tonite to ck on you and to say my good bye's....I have loved you and had so many great memories with you for about 35years. We could have had such a great time in our younger years...For sure..I just Know Joe was waiting at the end of that tunnel of light with his arms open wide and you shared the best hug ever and the one you have been waiting for for a LONG time....Your Real Love and what made you the woman I knew... My dear friend Thank you for being there for me when I needed you for always thinking of me and for all the great talks we have had through the years..I love you my friend and will miss you ..though I know now FINALLY you are reunited with your true Love and will have eternity with him,, God Bless You and Enjoy this beautiful eternal Life...Miss you and Love you sweet Lady....Connie....(ps) I really wanted to check your hair and brought my comb just in case...But I know you understand and are where you really want to be....Looking young and Beautiful and having a great dance with your guy.. You have waited a LONG time

“ No words can express my feelings for Eloise. When I was 13 years old she married my brother, for the first time in my life, I now had a sister and a real buddy. She bought me my first pair of high heels, I felt like a princess. During the many years that followed, she was there to hug me and wipe my tears. Eloise, I will always love you and miss you. I know that Joe is so happy to be with the love of his life, Eller.
