

Emma Louise Haught

October 8, 1915 - April 8, 2016

Emma Louise "Jackie" Conner Haught was born on October 8, 1915 in Briscoe County, Texas and grew up in Floydada. She passed away on April 8th, 2016 in Birmingham, Alabama at the age of 100. She graduated Floydada High School in 1932. In 1938 she married O.B. Haught. She was a Lubbock resident from 1946 until 2007, when she moved to Birmingham.

Jackie earned bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Texas Tech University and did graduate work in Library Science at Texas Women's University in Denton. She taught in Floyd County for six years and in Lubbock for 32 years, where she was a fifth grade teacher at Posey and Dupree Elementary Schools, retiring and returning as librarian at Alderson Middle School.

Jackie belonged to the First United Methodist Church of Lubbock and the Questors Sunday School Class. She was a member of several professional organizations, including the Association for Childhood Education, the Texas Library Association, National Education Association, Texas State Teachers' Association, Retired Teachers and Delta Kappa Gamma. At Texas Tech she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. She was also a member of the Lubbock Women's Club.

Jackie was preceded in death by her parents, S.F. "Buck" and Nellie Mae

Conner, sisters Baby Nell Conner and Mary Ruth Herriage, husband O.B. Haught, daughter Gay Haught McHugh and great-grandson Robert Mason Buckingham.

She is survived by her daughter, Sylvia Haught Gates and husband Frank W. Gates, nephew Troy Mask, niece Dani Spann and husband Johnny Spann, grandchildren Rebecca Wight Buckingham, David Andrew Wight, Holley Annette Gates, Matthew Scott Wight and wife Maggie, and Gina Gates Averett and husband John Averett and great-grandchildren Sarah Morgan Buckingham and Olivia Kate Gates.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Everliving Church Trust at the First United Methodist Church or to a favorite charity.
