Seeing this video of Officer Jimenez brought me to tears. I only knew Officer Jimenez as a fun loving, always call the office when i walked in to make me laugh, look at the good side, and a person in who you just couldnt help but smile when you saw him, and he would return it with a smile and something funny to say. Rest easy Sir! See you Later.

“ I will always remember his smile and sweet spirit as we passed each other during shift change. He was so polite always holding the door and making one to feel respected. I was so impresses because he always wanted to work. He will surely be missed. Heaven received an Angel with a big heart. Love Debbie Tagle

“ I remember going to Erineo’s high school graduation party and dancing together, whether it was a slow song or a fast song he wanted to dance. He was such a sweet, amazing, and big hearted guy that invited me to pop fireworks for 4th of July. We had so much fun dancing, laughing, talking and popping fireworks, I will always remember having so much fun with Erineo. He loved being around everyone and always was the one that brought light in the room. Rest easy Erineo, you will be greatly missed!
