Aunt Meta was such an important part of my childhood! Every time we came to visit she was always cut my hair& gave me a perm! She was always so loving , and caring. I remember liste to Mom & Aunt Meta & Roxy laughing , and cutting up with each other. She was spunky, and talented! My life would not be the same without her. She will be truly missed!❤️

“ What a beautiful soul she was.....you always felt loved and at peace in her presence. She was just such a special human being. Its amazing to think of all the lives she touched on her years in this earth. She was a witness for the Lord in every moment of every day to family and strangers alike. Always ready to be of service whether you needed a hug or a prayer or a meal or just an encouraging word. She will be missed but oh how she is rejoicing in heaven right now! I can just see her singing and playing music in Jesus presence with no more pain or cares of this earthly life.

“ Maw Maw Fine has gone home to be with the rest of God's Angel's. I remember so many things when we were growing up, but more than any memory I could share, the way I felt around her sticks out the most. She was the epitome of God's Love. You could feel it when you were around her. She was anointed with the Holy Spirit. I May have lived 1000 miles away, but always felt her presence.

I know you are in heaven, and finally at peace.

“ This lady was faithful and fearless. I recall a visit to LA and we went to Avery Island to the Tabasco farm and gardens. They had alligators there and she wanted good pictures. We kept telling her not to get too close, but she did anyway. She was literally a few feet from them and not worried in the slightest. Maw Maw did things on her terms and wasn't easily persuaded otherwise. She was so full of love and kindness at the same time. And, she loved the Lord and to tell people about Him. She is finally at home with the ones gone before her. We will love and miss her dearly! Mike, Mindy, Mitchell and Mason Smith.
