Eueritha Joy Elliott, beloved wife, mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend, peacefully departed this life on January 25, 2025, at the age of 79. She dedicated her professional life to the food and beverage industry working at multiple food brokerages in Lubbock, where she forged lasting relationships with colleagues and clients alike. Joy found happiness in the connections she nurtured both personally and professionally.

Life with Joy was filled with laughter and memorable moments. She was an avid fisherman, always ready for a weekend adventure by the water. The holiday season brought her immense joy as she delighted in baking Christmas candy for her family. In her downtime, Joy also loved sewing, knitting, gathering around the table for a friendly game of cards, and could often be found immersed in puzzles or taking Izzy for a ride to Sonic. Joy had a green thumb, and her garden was a testament to her nurturing spirit. Many evenings were spent at the grocery store, where she enjoyed shopping seven nights a week because she always needed something. Some of her fondest memories were created with, Roger, enjoying outings at either Sonic or Taco Villa for a nightly diet coke and 15 minutes of alone time together.
