“ When I was a very little girl, I remember asking grandpa if he was going to live as long as great-grandma, and he responded with “I certainly hope not!” - Spoiler, she was old, but not 100!

I also remember whenever we'd go to mass at San Ramon's with grandma & grandpa, every time after mass grandpa would stand in line to shake hands with the priest & give him his unsolicited opinion on the homily- most of the time some variation on “that was pretty good, but too long ”

I have this great mental image now, of grandpa going to meet God, with the recently departed standing in line just like after mass, going to shake hands with the priest, and grandpa pausing to give God his commentary on life- “that was pretty good, but too long”

Of course, we will all miss him tremendously, but I'm so happy that he is free of the old age infirmities that he hoped not to endure, all those years ago.

“ Jim Ed,

Knowing the Macha family is indeed an honor.

Felix came to our store often and it was my pleasure. He enjoyed visiting with my dad, Nestor, with me listening in. It was like messages from Heaven listening to Felix.

Felix was most honest in his life and he shared and asked questions about most anything --- can you imagine --- Felix asking me for advice and he was my elder.

Always I gave the answers from my heart. If he had a problem with the application procedure he called and I put his needs first and fixed what was needed.

It seemed that he came over sometimes just to be uplifted when things were difficult.

Felix is the best a father could be.

Thank you,

from Jerry Kitten
