

Flora Elizabeth Decker

December 11, 1922 - March 14, 2025

In loving memory of Flora Elizabeth Decker, who graced this world with her presence from December 11, 1922, until March 14, 2025. Born in Brooklyn, NY, Flora lived an extraordinary life filled with love, faith, and dedication.

Flora was a proud graduate of City College of New York, obtaining her Bachelor's Degree, which paved the way for her successful career as an administrator in the business industry. In 1951, she joyously married her husband, and together they built a beautiful family, leaving behind two cherished sons, Joe Decker and James Decker. Flora was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, whose love and warmth filled the hearts of everyone around her. Loved ones also include four grandchildren, Ryan, Allison, Madeleine and Chloe ; one great-granddaughter, Francesca.

A longstanding member of Saint Peter the Apostle Catholic Church in River Edge, NJ, Flora served faithfully as the President of the Rosary Society. Her unwavering dedication to her parish community was inspiring, and she cherished her faith throughout her life. Flora was also an active member of the National Italian American Foundation, celebrating her heritage and fostering connections with others.

In her younger days, Flora dedicated time to studying dance and ballet, showcasing her love for the arts. She often delighted family and friends with her talent at the piano, filling their homes with beautiful melodies.

Flora's spirited presence will forever remain in the memories of those who loved her dearly. At a later date, her remains will be laid to rest next to her beloved husband, a final celebration of their enduring love.

Family and friends will gather to celebrate Flora's extraordinary life in a funeral service that will be announced soon. As we honor this remarkable woman, we encourage all who knew her to share their memories and stories, ensuring Flora's legacy continues to inspire and uplift us.

Flora was preceded in death by her husband Joseph Decker, her parents, Edward and Mary Tapiro; son, Edward Decker.
