“ Heaven is just a little bit sweeter now that Frank is Home. We knew him as 'Our' greeter at the east door of SouthCrest Baptist. But he was so much more.

Frank was Jesus with skin on to us, his smile, the laughter at the hat I was wearing that day, helping my dad out of the car, visiting with my dad with love and attention, sharing kind, encouraging words and a sweet hug. I always looked forward to seeing him at the door on Sundays. In our eyes, wherever people came to worship our Lord, Frank would be there with a smile and that twinkle in his eyes.

Even though I am sad knowing I'll not get to enjoy his kind spirit here on earth anymore, I am so glad that Frank is experiencing the joy of seeing Jesus and has heard Him say 'Well done, my good and faithful servant'. He, again is now where people are forever worshipping The Lord. He is Home.

Praying that you may you be comforted by wonderful memories and the knowledge that you will see him again.
