We are thinking of all of you at this time. Its never easy to see your parents go but it is a blessing to have each other and memories to reflect on now and in the days ahead. We will be thinking of all of you on Monday and in the days to come. Our hearts and prayers are there with all of the family.

Mr. Frank was a such a kind and loving man. He was like a grandad to my kids who lost their own grandad at a young age. He always loved to come and sit on our front porch and always told me thats where he wanted to be when he died. I wish he could have been but I know he is sitting on a much bigger porch with Margie and Terry

now. We will miss him so very much but we are so proud he was a part of our family. He is gone but he will never be forgotten. We love you Mr. Frank.
