

Gail Alan Hudson

April 15, 1926 - April 5, 2017

Gail A. Hudson

A celebration of life service for Gail A. Hudson, 90, of Lubbock will be held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, April 8, 2017 at the First Baptist Church with Rev. Jay Abernathy officiating. Burial will follow at the City of Lubbock Cemetery. The family will receive friends at Sanders Funeral Home on Friday from 4-7:00 p.m.

Gail was born April 15, 1926 to Charles and Maude Hood Hudson. He was the seventh of seven children.

He was preceded in death by his wife Sherley, of 49 years and six siblings. He is survived by four children, Kathi Robinson (Steve) of Lubbock, Randy (Donna) of Victoria, Texas, Terry (Belinda) of Santa Fe, New Mexico and Kristi Shirmeyer (Dave) of Indianapolis, Indiana. In addition he had four grandchildren and three great grandchildren. He is also survived by his dear friend and companion Patsy Collins of McKinney, Texas. In addition he leaves behind many, many nieces and nephews.

Gail honorably served in the US Army during World War II. In recognition of his military service he was in the first group of veterans who participated in the Texas South Plains Honor Flight to Washington, DC in 2011. After the war, he worked in the grocery business for 75 years including, Furr's Inc. and most recently United Market Street. He worked in that business until November of 2016 where he was honored several times during his service to the United Market Street.

Gail was a member of First Baptist Church and a very faithful participant of the Downtown Bible Class led by the Rev. John Ballard.

His primary passion in life was spending time with his family where he looked forward to family reunions, holidays and special events with family members.

Gail was always a source of encouragement and support to all who knew him.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Hospice of Lubbock, the American Cancer Society or the Texas South Plains Honor Flight of Lubbock.
