“ Christi and Greg, I want to tell you how much your Dad meant to me. He was always encouraging, and proud of you two. His passing, like Fannye’s, is a somber event. But his life and good outlook was, to me, a source of joy - he and Fannye were always happy to see Lois and me, just as we are when we see or hear from you (or about you). He helped me see the happiness there is in a family as large as the Burkleo family. Peace be among us all.

“ I’m so sorry to hear of Gary’s passing. My husband was an architect and worked with Gary on a project. And, I suspect they played golf together a time or two! He called me when my husband died and that meant a lot to me. My sympathies to all the family. K. Landress
