

Gary Garland Gregory

March 12, 1963 - January 14, 2021

Gary Garland Gregory of Lubbock passed away January 14, 2021. Gary was born on March 12, 1963 to Garland and Sandra Gregory. He was a graduate of Temple High School and later went on to graduate from Texas Tech University where he received his Bachelors in Science Agriculture and Applied Economics, also receiving his Masters in Science. He loved a lot of things but a few of his favorites were Texas Tech, cooking, and spending time with his friends and family. He had a career in programming working for Dino Software.

Gary is survived by his father Garland Gregory, niece Brienna Gregory, nephew Brandon Gregory, and great nephew Jakoby Gregory. He is preceded in death by his mother Sandra Gregory.

Gary was very well loved and will be missed by many.

There will be a visitation from 6 to 8 PM on Wednesday, January 20, 2021 at Sanders Funeral Home. A service will be held at 2 PM on Thursday, January 21, 2021 in Sanders Memorial Chapel.

“ I just found out you are no longer with us my heart us broken. Loved you like a brother. We shared so many laughs together. Loved going to rodeos with you. Loved when you came down to Austin to visit and spend the weekend. I will see you again some day and we will laugh the day away
