

Gary Michael Hardin

December 23, 1951 - October 12, 2023

Gary Michael Hardin, 71, of Lubbock, Texas passed away October 12, 2023.

Gary (Buzzy) was born December 23, 1951 in Lubbock, TX to Al and Mary Hardin.

Gary retires in 2015 and got to live out his dream of moving to the mountains of New Mexico, most recently, Guadalupe, New Mexico. There he served as camp Host at Sierra Bonita Cabin and campground, meeting and witnessing to all that he met. He was a simple and quiet man and required little to be content. A friend described him best saying, he loved fishing for people and loved fishing for fish. He used the van that his mother purchased for the church to pick up kids for Sunday school and VBS. He also used it to minister and distribute food and warm clothes to the homeless in the community. Gary was an evangelist, up until the day before his death he was witnessing to loved ones on the phone. Well done, good and faithful servant.

Loved ones include his sons, Jacob Hardin and Todd Hardin. His sister, Tamie Hardin Grant (Steve). His Brother, Rodney Hardin (Margaret). Grandchildren, Austin, Landon, Faith, Nova, and Orion. Nephews, Lathe Grant, B.J. Hardin, and Niece, Mandy Hardin.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Al and Mary Hardin. His brother, Steve Hardin. His grandparents, John and Effie Hardin, and Richard and Lucy Mickler.

The funeral service will be at 11:00 A.M., Saturday, October 14, 2023 at Quaker Ave Church of God with Pastor Mike Cleghorn officiating.
