“ My sincere condolences to Puga, Davila, Tiejerina family & all who loved her. My heart breaks with you all. Lifting everyone up prayers for peace and comfort. My dear Gema, I still remember the very first day we met in 4th grade you were a new student with a beautiful smile & a very unique name. We became childhood friends living about 6-7 houses apart. I will cherish all the fun memories we had playing around in the neighborhood, hanging out in junior high then reconnecting on FB as adults sharing the love we both have for our families, especially for our dads as we both loved our daddy's dearly as both were daddy's girls! Give my daddy a kiss & hug! I have some comfort knowing you are rejoicing with your daddy! Rest in peace beautiful Angel. Until we meet again, I love you! Your childhood friend, Rosie V. Reyes “ Sending peace, love, and light to the Puga and Davila families. Gema became a part of our family when she began caring for our mom, Margie Dillon. We all loved her very much! She will be sorely missed.
