

Gene Stubblefield

April 17, 1941 - November 22, 2024

Gene Franklin Stubblefield 83, of Brownfield, Texas, passed away in Lubbock, Tx on November 22nd, 2024, in the comfort of his home surrounded by his family.

He was born in Brownfield, Texas in 1941 to Herman and Trilby Stubblefield, followed by his younger sister Judy. Throughout his life, Gene enjoyed singing in the church choir where he acted as lead with his deep and recognizable baritone. He was a well-known jokester with a big smile and a life full of laughter. Gene commendably served in the United States Army from 1959 to 1962, stationed in Germany for 3 years. After returning from the service, Gene worked for the United States Post Office as a beloved and dependable mail carrier until his retirement in 1996. He was incredibly well thought of and missed by those he worked with and delivered mail to. The experiences during this time brought a lifetime of stories to those lucky enough to know him. Gene never met a stranger.

Gene was preceded in death by his parents Herman and Trilby and is survived by his devoted wife Mary of 61 years. He had two loving children, Michael and Karan, and his son-in-law Justin. He was fortunate to have three granddaughters, Jordan, Kalli, and Kassadi, who he doted on until his death. He was an excellent grandfather who was set to become a great-grandfather in June 2025. He will be dearly missed and cherished in the memories of his loved ones.

A celebration of his life will be held graveside at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, November 27, 2024 in Resthaven Memorial Park.
