

Guadalupe Ronda Stewart Ybarra

October 23, 1955 - February 14, 2025

Guadalupe Ronda Stewart Ybarra, 69, passed away on February 14, 2025. Born on October 23, 1955, in Fort Stockton, Texas, to Felipe and Rosella Ybarra. She was a cherished sister, aunt, and friend. Guadalupe graduated from Odessa College with an associate's degree in accounting, which she applied in her role as a co-owner of the family-operated business, Stewart Auto Supply. She was known for her love of spending time with friends and family, as well as her passions for cooking, gardening, and sewing.

Guadalupe was preceded in death by her parents, Felipe and Rosella, and her oldest brother, Tony Ybarra. She is survived by her younger brother, Pete Ybarra, her sister Paula and her husband James Copeland, their children Angie, Emily, Jacob, and Cody, as well as her younger sister, Mally, and her husband, Clyde Hance, and their daughter, Sunshine. Additionally, she leaves behind four grandnieces and three grandnephews.

Guadalupe will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

There will be a visitation held at Sanders Funeral Home on Friday, February 21, 2025 at 5PM with the rosary to follow at 6PM. A memorial service for Guadalupe will be held on Saturday, February 22, 2025 at 10AM in Sanders Memorial Chapel. Graveside will follow at Peaceful Gardens Memorial Park.

“ My cousin "Lupita" will be missed so much! Lupita and I talked on the phone at least once a week. I truly enjoyed sharing memories especially about her mother and Mama Mage. Before I left for Dallas area to visit my grandchildren and great grandchildren, we had a lengthy conversation about life and how beautiful life was as we were growing up.
