“ I remember when I was about 12 years old. He and Mary and some other friends were headed out to Buffalo Lakes with the boat and ask me to come along. Only problem was, I am not sure he asked my Mom and Dad for permission for me to go. I had a great time driving the boat and pulling the adults while they were waterskiing. When we got home, I think Harlan caught hell from my Mom and Dad for not asking first. I also remember going with Harlan to the drive-in movie one time to spy on a girl who was out with some other guy. Turns out, that was who became Aunt Mary!

Love you, Uncle Harlan. Glad you are at peace and hope you you get a chuckle out of these fond memories.
