Hazel Meridith Earsley

Hazel Meridith Earsley, 84, of Lubbock died on April 24, 2014 after a lengthy illness. Graveside services will be held on Friday, April 25th at 1:00 p.m. at Resthaven Memorial Park under the direction of Sanders Funeral Home.

Hazel was born June 16, 1929 to Oscar and Alma Lee Meridith in Lubbock, Texas. She was a life-long resident of Lubbock. She attended Lubbock High School and Texas Tech University. She was an active member of First Christian Church. Hazel was an accomplished seamstress and she shared her knowledge and passion for sewing with others by establishing Rachael's Fabrics in 1980. She was also an avid reader and gardener. Her flower gardens were admired by many, particularly her prized rose gardens. Hazel also loved to travel the world with family and friends. She was a former member of the Upper Room Sunday School class at First Christian Church, Lubbock Women's Club, and Christian Women's Federation.

Hazel was preceded in death by her husband, Melvin L. Earsley; her parents; and a sister, Marjorie Meridith. She is survived by her daughter, Reta Hirsch and husband Guy of Lubbock; two step-sons, Jim Earsley and Steve Earsley; 3 grandchildren, Rachael Bradley and husband Jay of Lubbock, Benjamin Hirsch and wife Jennifer of Charlottesville, VA, and Todd Earsley of Dallas; 3 great-grandchildren, Meridith Bradley, Cameron Bradley and Wyatt Hirsch. The family asks that memorials be sent to First Christian Church, Morris Safe House, South Plains Food Bank or a charity of your choice.

The family would like to thank Dr. Brad Snodgrass, the staff of Hospice of Lubbock and especially the caring staff of Emeritus at Quail Ridge for the devotion and love they have given to Mrs. Earsley during her long illness.
