He then worked another 14 years for Huco. After the war, when he started at Merchant Freight, he met his future spouse, and the love of his life, Margaret Dillard, while making deliveries to her place of work - Clover Lake Drug in Sudan, TX. He was her devoted husband for 54 years before she passed on April 9th 2016. Chuck was a proud father of one son, Roger Dillard, Grandfather to Corby Dillard and Stephanie Booth and Great-Grandfather to Emma Booth, Elijah Booth and Michael Dillard. He is preceded in death by his parents, Troy Dillard and Ora Pierce, brothers James Dillard, Loyd Dillard, Hoyt Dillard, D. Wayne (Ed) Dillard, Royce Dillard, his sister Mavis Dillard Franklin and his wife, Margaret Dillard. He was a man that was known for his giving and generous spirit, his service to others, and his ability to outwork everyone around him, even at 86 years old. He will always be fondly remembered, dearly loved and truly missed. He is with Jesus now and as C.S. Lewis said, "There are far, far better things ahead than any we leave behind."

“ Losing both Margaret and Chuck saddens us. Only a few months ago, he was working on neighbors' yards. We had known Margaret since Larry and I were in high school over 50 years ago going to the Pancake House. They both were kind, thoughtful hardworking people who were always cheerfully helping others. We will miss them both, but know that they are together again. Our condolences to Roger and family. Larry and Mikel Ward
