“ Irene was such a dear friend and helpful in so many ways at First Christian Church. She enjoyed helping "PUT OUT THE LIGHT" as we called it when we met at the church to apply the mailing labels each week. She would also call on Arnold Ingraham to change light bulbs and other honey do errands. He helped her to shop for a new car after her accident. We all missed her when she moved away, and tried to keep in touch. There will be a new helper for God now that she has left her earthly home. Fondly, Margaret Ingraham
