“Dee was a neighbor and friend to my grandma (Johnia Hudnall) for many years. Growing up, I remember Dee or Donna bringing over newspapers and yummy rolls or treats, and I loved bowling on Saturdays with Donna and my uncle Larry and their friends while Dee, my grandma, and other families watched and kept score. I spent many weekends in Lubbock when I was a child, and Dee and Donna are both a part of those cherished memories. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing, and I am praying for her family.

“I don't know quite how to begin in writing about Aunt Dee. Words are inadequate for a beloved one whose very long life was was a shining example of kind deeds, comforting words, and selfless, persistent, enduring faith. She was always there for me and my brother Steve.

When our mom Roberta (one of Dee's sisters) passed away in 1961, Dee made us feel special, as if we were her own. For years and years there were cards and calls and visits. Always there were hugs and a spiritual strength and empathy that radiated from her that never varied nor dimmed. She gave us letters that Roberta had written her which must have been very precious to her, but were Godsend to me. Finally, I cannot write the least part of what I know to be Aunt Dee's virtues, so will close with this. Dee is the most nearly Christ like person I have known in my 70 years. Donna, James, and Glenda Jo, could not possibly had a better mom, nor we a better Aunt. Till we meet again, Love, Daril
