“Jack Spears was not only a good and honest man, he was a true friend. Through the many years we knew each other, whether face to face or on the telephone, his conversation always started with, "What's goin' on?" Jack's word was always as good as gold. I'll miss him.

Jack once told me, "If you'd get you a John Deere instead of that red tractor, you'd get off and throw rocks at that International."
