

Jackie Dean Moon

January 30, 1929 - September 18, 2015

A celebration of the life of Jackie Dean Moon, 86, of Lubbock will be at 10:00 a.m., Monday, September 21, 2015 in Sanders Memorial Chapel. Graveside service will follow at noon in the Terry County Memorial Cemetery. Family will receive friends from 2:30-4:30 p.m., Sunday at Sanders Funeral Home.

Jackie finished his race on September 18 at home with his daughter, P.J. and son-in-law, Van Webb at his side.

Jackie was born January 30, 1929, to Jesse and Veda Carr Moon in Erath County, Texas. He married Jean Payne on May 15, 1947, in Stephenville, Texas. They would enjoy the next 67 years as a loving couple until Jean's death on November 14, 2014. They worked together faithfully serving Jesus every place they lived, which included Artesia, New Mexico; Brownfield, Texas; Waco, Texas; and Lubbock, Texas. He was a member of the Kings Ridge church of Christ at his death.

Jackie spent most of his adult life selling and servicing tractors. While working as owner and manager of Brownfield Ford Tractor from 1969 through 1983, he won many sales awards and trips to England and France. One of his proudest accomplishments in the tractor business was the design and development of the TW 30 tractor.

As well as his wife Jean, Jackie was preceded in death by his parents and his three brothers and one sister. Jackie was considered by his children as their hero: son, Mike and wife Carolyn of Houston, Texas; three daughters, P.J. and husband Van Webb of Lubbock, Texas; Stephanie and husband Glen Norvell of Houston, Texas: and Megan and husband Colt Crossland of Poteet, Texas; eleven grandchildren; and twelve great-grandchildren.

The family gives thanks for the support of many friends, especially for the loving care provided by Emily Pitts.

The family requests that memorials be directed to Brownfield church of Christ where Jackie was a long-time member and served as both a deacon and an elder.
