

James "Jimmy" Davis

September 4, 1961 - February 13, 2018

James B. (Jimmy) Davis, 56, of Bryan, Texas passed peacefully from this life on February 13, 2018 in his home.

A memorial service to celebrate his life will be held March 3, 2018 at 2 p.m. in Smyer, Texas at the First Baptist Church.

He was born September 4, 1961 to Haskell B. Davis and Lana Godwin Davis in Lubbock, Texas. Jimmy spent his childhood in the Lubbock area and graduated from Smyer High School in 1980. He attended church at Fairview Baptist Church and was led to the Lord and baptized by Pastor Syl Moore. Pastor Moore will be officiating Jimmy's memorial service.

His high school years were filled with football, basketball, band chasing girls and keeping his hair looking perfect. Let's not forget the many-many shenanigans that he and his cousins pulled. There are lots of great memories and stories to share.

Jimmy moved to Bryan/College Station area a couple of years after graduating. He worked in the oil field and Brazos County but spent most of his years working for Texas A & M University where he was still employed at the time of his passing.

He was a generous, God fearing, hardworking man. He enjoyed cookouts and fishing with his buddy, James, family visits, taking care of his home place and sweet tea.

Most of all- Jimmy loved his family. He and his beloved wife, Patsy had four daughters and six grandchildren between them and he selflessly adored each one. To his wife, Patsy- he was the love of her life. To his daughters and two sisters- he was their "hero. To his grandchildren- he was "Poppy" or "Jippy" and he reminded them often that "Jesus and Poppy love you the most". To his mother- he was her inspiration.

Jimmy will be missed by many family members and friends. We will miss his sense of humor, his tender heart and his ability to make everyone feel special. He is healed and at rest with his Heavenly Father and that gives us peace.

Jimmy is survived by his wife, Patsy Montalbano Davis of Bryan, TX; daughters, Ashley Cox, Kristie Montalbano, Stephanie Cash and Candice Montalbano; six grandchildren, McKenna, Maddie, Kaleb, Chloe, Sophie and Caitlyn.

Also survived by his mother, Lana Caudle of Lubbock; father, Haskell Davis of Sundown; two sisters, Darla Kirton and Christy Childress and step-sister, Cheryl McCartney; brothers, Brad Davis, Trent Davis, Lonnie Davis and Keith Davis and step-brother, D.J. Caudle; preceded in death by two loving Dads, Charles (Pop) Caswell and John Caudle and step-sister, April Blake.
