

James Michael Haren

February 18, 1956 - April 27, 2020

A celebration of the life of James Michael Haren, 64, of Lubbock, Texas will be 2:00 PM Wednesday, April 29, 2020 at the City of Lubbock Cemetery.

James passed away April 27, 2020. He was born February 18, 1956 in Lubbock, TX to Leonard and Martha Haren. He was a welder, roofer and hair stylist. Lived in Grand Junction, Colorado from 1987-2002 before moving back to Lubbock. While living in Grand Junction, he was a drummer for his worship team in Grand Junction and was a member of Carpentar's Church in Lubbock.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Loved ones include sister Sonja Haren of Lubbock; daughter Sonja Ann Haren of Grand Junction, Colorado; son Levi Michael Harley Haren of Montana; three nephews, Charles A. Gray of Lubbock, Stacy Allen Gray and wife, Nicole of Lubbock and Jay Gray and wife Christy of Ruidoso, NM; cousin, Christie Haren Bloomquist; niece Holly Vasquez and husband, Adam of Lubbock; numerous great nieces and nephews.

Cemetery Details

City of Lubbock Cemetery

2011 E 31st Street
Lubbock, TX 79404

Previous Events

Graveside Service

APR 29. 2:00 PM - 2:30 PM (CT)

City of Lubbock Cemetery
2011 E 31st Street
Lubbock, TX 79404

Tribute Wall

TB

“ Mr. Haren was a good friend of my brother Ron Waskowiak. So sad to hear of his passing. RIP kind sir.

Tina Beal - April 29, 2020 at 11:40 AM

CH

Condolences to the family and friends. From calvin from calgary Canada.

Calvin henry - May 01, 2020 at 04:47 PM

LM

Very sad to learn of James passing. Rest in peace Dear Friend James Man og God.

LaVonne Murdock - May 11, 2020 at 08:10 AM