I remember spending summers at Granny Roses and Kirks house. Us kids have a lot of fun. We would go irrigating and driving around the farm. I will cherish the memories we got to spend with Kirk.

“ Through your tears and laughter of rememberences, our hope is that you all find yourselves smiling for him and that he finally has the peace that surpasses all human understanding. For Sunday was only a day of transition and not where it ended, but where real living just began. Our very best during this most dificult time - lots of love, huge hugs, and prayers of peace to you James, Marlene and the entire Smith Family.
