“ Jim was my first cousin. We didn't see each other very often growing up. I've kept a photo of cousins, as children, sitting in Uncle Wade's irrigation ditch. I cherish that photo. We were very young and carefree just cooling off on a hot summer day in W. Tx. I always enjoyed getting to visit with Jim on occasions, after we grew up. He always complimented me by saying I reminded him of his sister, Linda. That made me proud for she was a lovely lady. Jim will be greatly missed by all of us.

“ My family lived next door to Jim's in Bryan. We shared a driveway. Since I came to Lubbock I have enjoyed visiting with him as he repaired or replaced my windshield. I pray for God's divine comfort for the family as they grieve.
