“ One of my most favorite memories of Jim and his immediate family was one year when Jim, Betty, and the girls came to visit our family at our ranch in Meeker. One of the girls I think it was Jamie said "we knew we were getting close when we got to the tired kitty ranch" meaning the Sleepy Cat Guest Ranch which was just west of my parents ranch. We laughed so much about that (even years later.) She was pretty small when she made that statement. I was young when our family moved from Knox City so many of my memories of Jim were when we either visited Knox City or when you came to visit us in Meeker. We enjoyed fishing in the river, picnics in the mountains and the girls had fun bottle feeding lambs and calves on the ranch. I wish I could be with all of you Robinson's on Saturday, but time just didn't allow me to come from Nebraska. I love you all and know how much Jim will be missed. After reading Jim's obituary, I have decided to make a monetary donation to our local school foundation. Our school system is small; graduating only about 15- 20 seniors a year. The Leyton Foundation provides scholarships for graduating seniors and I will make a donation in Jim's name to that foundation.

Love your Nebraska cousin,
