“ James, I can't even begin to imagine what your family is going through. I know it's been a while since we've spoken but James, you were such a great person! I still can't believe this has happened. Some of my best memories in Lubbock had you in them! You were just like a big brother....you were there through everything, the highs and the lows. You protected us as you felt you should, but I know burro loved it and appreciated it. From Mi Tio's to Joel's, you were always there for me when I needed you. You made us laugh, you made us the best drinks, and we always had the best time when we all hung out. So many memories with you, James. Those babies of yours were the best thing that happened for you....I remember you were so excited and overjoyed with Saylee and then with Zadin. I know you loved them and your nieces with all you had. You were a great man and father. James, I know you will always be watching over them and taking care of them. I thank God that you are no longer suffering. But you sure will be missed by so many!! May you fly high with the angels, James! Until we meet again!!! <3

“ Up late at night thinking about you...remember when we were younger. You told us that one day you were going to loose weight and dunk. We laughed but not at you with you because you were a joker like that. Well high school came and guess what you did exactly that!!!! You believed in what you spoke! My heart is sadden and my mind is full of would of's and could of's. I wanted to see you again. This afternoon while i was napping you came to me in a dream. Smiling as we talked and just having fun. I asked you are you ok? And you nodded your head....then we hugged and you began to ride away. I woke up sad but happy because u blessed me my wish. I love and miss you old friend. I will see you again!!! R.I.H. BIG COOKIE !!!!

“ Bro, my life was in shambles before we met at fazzolis. I just came back from being injured from overseas and was pissed off at the world. The screwed up thing is u would make me life by making fun of me!! And after that we were thick as thieves. I remember the nights me u and Allison had going to the clubs, and of course the late nights we would spend at waffle house. James you taught me to live after my soul had died. I will never forget you. Go slow my brother, Go Slow.

“ James was always making jokes and was so protective. The nickname Big Papa really fit him well. I remember when I was working at Joel's he was there with Justin and a guy I was dating came in and Justin and James both were giving him the third degree. I remember asking James why he did that and he just said I wanted to make sure he didn't hurt you but also it was just funny scaring the shit out of him lol. James was a great man and will truly be missed. Praying for all his family!

“ James could always light up the high school office with that smile, he always made my day when he stopped by and leaned on the corner by my desk and just joked and laughed. I know the world will not be as bright without him. Natacia you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ James always called me his buddy. Every morning, he would clock in and give me a big hug. He was my gentle, giant friend who made me laugh every day. The office has been so quiet without him. I miss his hugs and laughter so much. RIP my sweet friend; until we meet again. Kayla Watson

“ I had the pleasure of working for James for a year at the tax office. We've all shared memories and stories about what a constant joy and laugh he was to be around. It didn't matter what was happening, how crazy the day was, or how rough things were. James made everyone around us laugh. Seeing him walk into work that morning meant that it was going to be a good day. He was full of love and the ability to laugh and make others laugh. He meant so much to all of us.
