

Janice Elaine Hinson

April 21, 1963 - October 6, 2015

Janice Elaine (Horn) Hinson was born on April 21, 1963 in Lubbock, TX. She was welcomed into a loving family and greatly cherished. Janice lived in Lubbock most of her life. She attended Dunbar High School and proceeded into the medical field. She became an EMT and worked for Lubbock Ambulance Service. She also attended Nursing School. Her current position was at Covenant Hospital. Janice had her son, Jacob, on July 20th, 1981. She met and married her husband Kent November 17th, 1984. Kent was a truck driver and Janice learned how to drive a truck with him.

Janice was a warm, loving and caring person. Her heart was bigger than Texas. She took care of everyone she knew while putting her own needs aside. Her home was always full of family, Jacob's friends and anyone who needed her. For several years she took care of Dustin and Skyler Chapman before they started school. Cassie Rucker came to live with them in 2003 and became a daughter to Janice and Kent.

Janice is preceded in death by her loving grandparents, Jacob Lloyd and Jennie Louise Leibfried; her mother, Marilyn Lloyddean Horn; and brother-cousin, Ronnie Chapman. She is survived by her husband, Kent Hinson; son, Jacob and daughter-in-law Melissa Hinson; daughter, Cassie and son-in-law Dustin Rucker; and 5 grandchildren, Austin, Braydon, Taylor, Hayden and Cason. She will be greatly missed, as well, by her sister-cousins, Roxanne McLain, Sandra Wyatt, and Karen Taylor and brother-cousin, Jeff Chapman.

“ Growing up with Janice has been pure fun and crazy! We were blessed with a close family and as our family grew so did the love and hospitality. Janice continued that legacy. Her door heart and arms were always open. There will be a space in our lives that no one else will ever fill but now heaven is one angel fuller. RIP sister cousin Love ALWAYS Sandra

Kent, I am so sorry for your loss! I just heard the news. I am heartbroken and I will place you and your family in my prayers.

Learning about Janice's passing last night was a shock. This brought back sweet memories of Janice and her care for others and joy of life. She was always a happy and welcoming person. Even though we didn't see each other often, when we did meet, it was as if we hadn't been apart because of her loving and accepting ways. Kent, Jake, and the rest of her family will be in my prayers. May God grant you peace as you go through this time and remember Janice and what she has meant to all of us. Suzy Jackson (cousin)
