

Janice Morris

March 8, 1930 - September 1, 2021

Janice Berry Morris, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend died on Tuesday, September 1, 2021 at home in Farmers Branch, Texas. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, September 4, 1:00pm, at Christ United Methodist Church in Farmers Branch. Visiting hours will be Tuesday, September 7 from 5-6 pm at Sanders Funeral Home in Lubbock, with burial and graveside services following on Wednesday, September 8 at 10 am at Resthaven Memorial Cemetery.

Jan is survived by her two daughters Julia Morris-Myers and Amy Rangel, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband George and her son George Morris, Jr.

Jan was born in Lamesa, Texas on March 8, 1930, the daughter of Luther and Amy Berry. She graduated from Texas Tech University and loved to tell the story of how she met her husband on the first day of classes there. Her father went searching for someone to carry her trunk, found George in the lobby, and their love story endured for 60 years. After raising a family, Jan developed a love of helping children learn to read and eventually became Director of the Scottish Rite Learning Center in Lubbock.

Throughout her life Jan was a devoted church member. She found great joy in sharing life with her family and friends and will be remembered for her kind, generous and optimistic spirit.

Memorial donations may be made to the Scottish Rite Learning Center of West Texas, 1101-70th Street, Lubbock, TX 79412 or Church World Service, P.O. Box 968, Elkhart, IN 46515.
