

Jayne Ann Miller

July 9, 1950 - September 1, 2012

Jayne Ann Williston Miller

Jayne Ann Williston Miller, 62, of Lubbock passed away on Saturday, September 1, 2012. The family will host visitors on Monday from 5:00-7:00pm at Sanders Funeral Home. Following a private graveside service, a memorial service will be held on Tuesday at 4:00pm at First Christian Church of Lubbock. Russ Murphy will officiate.

Jayne Ann was born in Chicago, Illinois on July 9, 1950 to C. Lincoln Williston, IV and Jane Leucht Williston. She graduated from St. Mary's Academy in Austin and obtained her bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Texas Tech University. Jayne Ann married David Miller on June 3, 1972. She taught special education at Wheatley Elementary and was a home-bound teacher for students with special needs.

As a former First Lady of Lubbock, she served as a community volunteer in many capacities. At the time of her death she was chapter advisor for Chi Omega Sorority and was a board member for Marian Moss Enterprises, the Louise Underwood Center for the Arts, University Medical Center Foundation, and Spirit Ranch. She was also an active member of Lubbock Symphony Guild, American Heart Association, Texas Tech Chancellor's Council, Lubbock Women's Club, Junior League of Lubbock, and Indiana Avenue Baptist Church. Jayne Ann supported her kids' PTA programs, serving as president at Waters Elementary, Evans Junior High, and Monterey High School, and she and David were presidents of the Monterey Booster Club. In recognition of her years of service, she was a recipient of a Life Membership in the Texas State PTA and of the Pat S. Moore Award from the Junior League of Lubbock. Yet above all else, Jayne Ann's greatest passion was nurturing her husband, children, and grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her father, Linc Williston, and her father-in-law, Alex Miller.

Those left to cherish her memory are her husband of 40 years, David, and three children; Matt Miller of Lubbock, Tim and Angela Miller of Lubbock, and Beth and Lee Berend of Wichita Falls. She has seven grandchildren: Beau and Abby Miller; Carlee, Pierce, and Graham Miller; and Allyson and Lawson Berend. She is also survived by her mother Jane Williston of Austin, sister Christine Rhodes of San Antonio, brother Chris Williston of Austin, and many beloved in-laws, nieces and nephews.

The Miller family thanks all of Jayne Ann's doctors, nurses, and caregivers who attended to her needs. In honor of Jayne Ann, contributions can be made to Marian Moss Enterprises at 501 E. 42nd, Lubbock, TX 79404.

“ Miller family, hearing of your mother's passing brought sadness to my heart. She demonstrated exceptional hospitality and class when I journeyed to Lubbock with some of Tim's crew. May the Lord bless her and keep her.

“ David Miller and Family,

Our thoughts of you go back to the days of Dixie Little League. Those were times when many of our families came together and just enjoyed the relationships that developed. May each of you be comforted in your time of loss and grieving by knowing that others truly care and share the loss with you. Thank you for sharing a special lady with so many of us. The days ahead will find you in our thoughts and prayers.

With our deepest sympathy,

“ David and family,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. While I didn't know Jayne Ann personally, I knew Alex Miller well and grew up in the DME business with David. Both wonderful men, with wonderful families. None of which is possible without wonderful wives as partners.
My deepest sympathies,
