

Jayne White

August 14, 1930 - March 18, 2012

Jayne White was born to loving parents Clara and Jack Ater on August 14th, 1930. An only child, she was her parents' great joy. She passed from this world on March 18th, 2012, surrounded by her loving family, sons Alan White and John Langford, daughter in law Rachel White, grandchildren April Langford and Randy Clement, and Scot Langford, and two great grandchildren, twin boys Royce and Everson Clement.

Jayne was a dignified and honorable woman who loved her family, cherished her friends and took great joy and pride in her work. She enjoyed a long career at Radio Lab as office manager, and was an active member of the Nancy Anderson Chapter of the DAR. She will be missed, remembered and treasured.

The family has requested in lieu of flowers a donation be made in Jayne's name to Hospice of Lubbock.

Graveside services will be held Thursday, March 22nd, 10:00 a.m. at the City of Lubbock Cemetery under the direction of Sanders Funeral Home.
