

Jean Marion Aldridge

February 17, 1931 - April 21, 2025

Jean Marion Aldridge, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend, passed away peacefully from natural causes on April 21, 2025, in Lubbock, Texas. She was born on February 17, 1931, in Queens, NY, as a child she relocated with her family to Beverly Hills, CA; graduated from Beverly Hills High School. Her early career found her teaching ballet and tap in Beverly Hills, a passion that highlighted her vibrant spirit and love for the arts.

Jean was not only dedicated to her work as a teacher's assistant with the Lubbock Independent School District, but she also cherished every moment spent with her family. Her daughter, Kimberly Aldridge, along with her grandchildren-April, Meagan, Ashley, Seth, and Charlie, great grandchildren, Abel, Buck and Isabel, were the apples of her eye, and her love for them shaped her life in countless wonderful ways.

In addition to her family, Jean had a deep appreciation for horses and found joy in being part of the equestrian community in her later years. Her faith in Christian Science, brought her comfort and strength throughout her life. Though she requested no formal memorial service, her feisty spirit will be remembered by all who knew her. Jean's legacy of love, kindness, and passion for life will carry on through her family and the many lives she touched.

Jean was preceded in death by her parents Henry Hubachek and Genevieve Keller, two children, Brian Aldridge and Keri Aldridge and her brothers, Louis

Hubachek and Henry Hubachek.
