

Jeanette McKeown

December 30, 1933 - March 12, 2025

Jeanette McKeown, born on December 30, 1933, in Ft. Worth, Texas, passed away peacefully on March 12, 2025, in Lubbock, Texas, at the age of 91. A beloved mother, dedicated surgical tech nurse, and cherished member of her community, Jeanette leaves behind a remarkable legacy of compassion and care.

Jeanette was only days old when she was adopted by her beloved parents John Dow & Vera Duree and was raised in Dimmitt, Texas. She completed her education with a high school diploma before embarking on a fulfilling career in health care as a surgical tech nurse at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, Texas and retired from working with Dr. Ernesto Ching. Her commitment to the well-being of her patients and her colleagues was evident throughout her professional life, where she demonstrated unwavering dedication and skill.

In 1952, She married Bobby W. Gullett with whom she shared one daughter, Cathey, born September 1952. Jeanette later married David A. McKeown on March 23, 1970 until he passed on December 12th, 2001. She is survived by her loving daughter, Cathey Bell, who carries forward Jeanette's spirit of kindness and resilience and her grandson, Robert Angeloff (Mariya), and one niece, Rhonda Chilcutt.

In celebration of Jeanette's life her family and friends will gather for a committal service at the Castro Memorial Gardens in Dimmitt, Texas on Saturday, April 5th, 2025.

Jeanette McKeown will be remembered not only for her professional accomplishments but also for her unwavering love for her family and friends. Her warmth, wisdom, and tireless dedication to helping others will continue to inspire those who knew her. She will be greatly missed. May she rest in peace.

Jeanette was preceded in death by her husband, David A. McKeown and her parents John Dow "J.D." Duree and Vera Lou Johnson Duree, and her sister Evelyn Mersiovksy.
