“ I worked with Jeremy for the last two years side by side , his wittiness and spunk of attitude just always made your day well in my case night , he was a good man , and colleague and my mentor .. most importantly he loved his family . Fondest memories when we would bet to see who would win Texas tech or Texas long horns lol he would always lose lol imma miss those times . But I know now he's with his family in heaven and that gives me more peace . Rest easy Jeremy and thank you it was an honor working beside you ---
