“ Jerry, you more like a brother than brother in law. I was never an outsider, that's hard to repay. May your family know peace and take comfort knowing that you were treasured and that they are loved even in your absence. I share the sorrow the family is feeling and hope that God will find a way to make things easier for them all.

“ Through my dear friend Lorraine Fox, I have come to know Jerry and his family through our sharing.-- a brief meeting helped me to know I liked him. I have loved the stories of his life and family, who I have also come to love. There are not enough ways to express my sadness for the loss felt by the family at Jerry's passing. I offer my deepest, heartfelt sympathy and wish peace in the days to come. Love. Marilyn McMillan
