“ Barbara,

Emile Dickinson wrote something like this:

Parting

All we know of heaven,

All we need of hell.

You and Jerry were a great team. Perfectly coordinated. The food was great; you knew my name, my children and my students. And so much science was conceived and discussed there. It was a time in the sun for me. You and Jerry were part of that sun.

“ Barbara, I am so sorry for your loss. I was so sad to see Jerry's obituary in the paper. You guys were such a big part of our life. John and I speak so often of the wonderful food we had at J & J's. And have wondered about you a lot, Y'all's business was one to be immolated in so many ways. You and Jerry were like family to us and all the students we introduced to the best bar-b-que in Lubbock May light perpetual shine on Jerry. Deepest sympathy. Love, Becky Orem
