“ Jimmy drove me to the hospital for the birth of my daughter in 1966. I was living in Lubbock when my water broke. All of my family lived in Crosbyton and there was no way my daughter was going to wait for someone to drive from Crosbyton before she make her appearance. I called Jimmy and on his day off from police duties he came and picked me up and we made it to the hospital in time. 20 + years later he drove my mom and my aunt to Austin for my daughter's wedding.
Prayers for peace for his family. He will be missed.
