

Jimmy Lovato

July 25, 1956 - May 22, 2022

On the evening of May 22, our dear brother Jimmy peacefully went to the Lord. He was born in 1956 to Carlos and Josephine Lovato who preceded him in death. He was very tired and was ready to be taken home. He had 4 brothers and two half sisters that preceded him in death. Johnny Esquierdo, Edward Lovato, Armando Lavato, Carlos Lovato, Viola Flores and Corina Gonzales.

Jimmy loved life, playing golf, his Texas Tech Red Raiders and going to his nephews Early Acres near Brownwood to have fun with his nephew and his brother and families. Going fishing, riding the tractor with the US Flag waving, cooking cowboy breakfast and having fun with family until his illness wouldn't allow him to travel. He is survived by two sisters, Chris Carter (Rayford); Patricia Lovato Casanova (Bobby) and his brother, Patrick Lovato (Susan); several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be John Anthony Baldazo, Frank Michael Baldazo, Armando Lovato, Jr, Bobby Casanova, Elijah Lovato, Alex Baldazo and Kenneth Reynolds with Honorary Pallbearers Rayford Carter and Anthony Perez.

Our dear brother will be greatly missed but not forgotten!

Family visitation will be at Sanders Funeral Home beginning at 6:30 p.m.,

“ My dear brother Jimmy has gone home to dad, mom and his brothers and sisters that left us. I remember him and my brother Pat came to visit me when I was going thru chemo and they surprised me with their bald heads to match my bald head. I love my brother so much and will miss him dearly. He was funny, kind, quiet and very loving in his own quiet way. So many memories to mention. Rest in Peace dear brother. No more pain. Rest. Love you, always in my heart.
