“ May all of you find peace with Pepaw's new journey. It's never easy at any age, but lean on each other for support and share good memories to laugh. I never had the pleasure of meeting her, only hearing how amazing of a woman she was. Pepaw watch over those that are saddened by your loss, give them the strength they need to come together as one to give you a beautiful home going service. Your memory will live on with the stories and laughter that is shared by those who loved you most. Rest Peacefully.

Love & prayers to the family. I have fondest memories of Jo dating back to 1965 when I worked with her on my very first job at National Linen Service. She was always kind and loving and a joy to be with . I am blessed to call her my friend.
